CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY (CTC)

CTC 1006 Blueprint Reading for Construction (3 Credits)
Provides the fundamentals of blueprint reading for estimating and construction. Topics include construction methods, construction math, lines and symbols, abbreviations, notations, using architectural and engineering scales, dimensioning, basic sketching and various types of plans - site, architectural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, structural, and shop drawings and specifications.
Prerequisites: C- or higher in ENG 1010
Previous: Legacy Equivalent(s): CTC* 106